

Andrew J. Wotawa

andrewwotawa@gmail.com | (636) 443-3098 | linkedin.com/in/andrewwotawa | O'Fallon, MO

Education

Missouri University of Science and Technology – B.S. in Electrical Engineering

December 2027

4.0/4.0 GPA

Technical Projects

Engineers Without Borders

- Large role in composing pre-trip and post-trip reports, alternatives analysis, and utilized decision matrices
- Work with contractor bids for hole-drilling and using cost-benefit analysis to decide on solar vs grid pump
- Use of Microsoft Office products for writing and collaborating with team

Rocket Design Team

Liquid Control Systems

- Designing PCB to handle connection between a Raspberry Pi 5 and a Raspberry Pi Pico within the GSECU
- Make use of DAQ module to accommodate various sensors which monitor internal variables of the rocket
- Utilize KiCAD to draw schematics and build the Printed Circuit Board
- Role in writing throttling algorithm using C++ to control rocket fuel usage

Personal Portfolio Website

andrewwotawa.com

- Designed and developed a responsive personal portfolio website using HTML and CSS, hosted on Cloudflare
- Integrated Cloudflare R2 Bucket for efficient content management ensuring a seamless user experience across all devices

Leadership Experience

Beta Sigma Psi

Social Chairman

- Built and maintained relationships with student organizations to coordinate multiple social events each week
- Collaborated with law-enforcement and vendors to plan a large-scale semesterly event with 100+ attendees
- Managed logistics for off-campus events, including formal gatherings and group trips

Assistant Recruitment Director

- Led recruitment efforts for fall semester new member class, overseeing planning and execution of recruitment strategies
- Coordinated and hosted recruitment events across various venues to create connections with potential new members
- Developed adaptable public speaking skills, capable of adjusting approach based on audience feedback

Missouri S&T Admissions

Student Ambassador

- Served as first point of contact for prospective students and families, delivering personal insights into academic programs, campus resources, and student life
- Administer tours of the university, sharing key information and answering any questions the families may have
- Collaborated with the admissions team to provide guidance on effectively engaging prospective students, contributing to one of the strongest enrollment semesters

Other Experience

Technology Specialist | Target – O'Fallon, MO

November 2023 – Present

- Assisted hundreds of customers daily in selecting technology solutions, including networking equipment, home security systems, PCs, peripherals, and mobile devices.
- Maintained a clean and organized store environment, ensuring products were well-stocked and accessible.
- Developed strong customer service skills by resolving product-related inquiries and concerns, ensuring a positive shopping experience.